Vitality healthcare Accelerators:

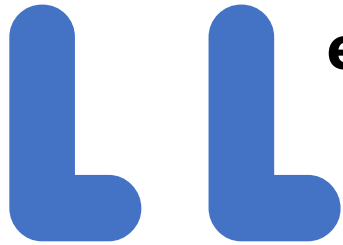

Our network of hospital relationships, allows us to deliver insights & run pilots

- We have deep relationship network across hospitals (public, private, corporates, etc.) across India
- Our relationships span across hospital management, doctors and staff (nursing, procurement, etc.)
- Our team members include doctors and people with past hospital administration experience, hence having a deep understanding of hospital operations and dynamics
- We have the ability to not only probe this network for insights, but also test specific value propositions and new engagement models through pilots

A leadership team brings a blend of experience across consulting & operations with a deep industry network.
